Keep 'em Coming!

This Issue's First Prize winner is Mr. Allan Stogre. You may recognize his name as he has been a previous second-prize winner. I always encourage frequent submissions since, you never know what photo will become a cover shot and, if you don't send them, you'll never know! Well done, Allan!

This great shot was a high-resolution, vertical format photo that perfectly illustrated what many of us will be heading to this winter – a warm getaway down South. This was taken at River Island, Arizona.

Another excellent example of the ideal RV lifestyle was sent in by Mr. Rick Laddish. You may recognize him as the man who shared his fantastic Seafood Chowder recipe with us this Issue (see Roadie's RV Kitchen). Fishing, cooking and RVing are passions that go very well together, as this photo clearly shows. It was taken at the beautiful Pedder Bay RV Resort & Marina, in Metchosin. Congratulations,

Rick, you are our Second Prize winner this Issue!
